Worship Theme for Today

Today's festival is a bridge between the Advent-Christmas-Epiphany cycle that comes to a close today and the Lent-Easter cycle that begins in several days. On the mount of transfiguration Jesus is revealed as God's beloved Son, echoing the words at his baptism. This vision of glory sustains us as Jesus faces his impending death in Jerusalem.

We turn this week to Ash Wednesday and our yearly baptismal journey from Lent to Easter. Some churches put aside the alleluia at the conclusion of today's liturgy. This word of joy will be omitted during the penitential season of Lent and will be sung again at Easter.

Transfiguration of Our Lord

Order for Worship

*Confession and Forgiveness

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who makes all things new, whose mercy endures forever.

C Amen

P Trusting in God's mercy, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection

P Holy One, source of our renewal,

C we confess that we are wrapped up in sin and cannot free ourselves. We have not practiced your righteousness. Our hearts have turned away from you. For the sake of the world you so love, forgive us, that we may be reconciled to one another for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P Thus says our God: "The former things have come to pass and new things I now declare." God's mercy makes us new. We are forgiven in the name of † Christ our Savior.

C Amen.

2 Gra - cious God, I come be - fore thee; come thou al - so un - to me;
3 Here thy praise is glad - ly chant - ed, here thy seed is du - ly sown;
4 Thou my faith in - crease and quick - en, let me keep thy gift di - vine;
5 Speak, O God, and I will hear thee, let thy will be done in - deed;

where my soul in joy - ful du - ty waits for God who an - swers prayer.
where we find thee and a - dore thee, there a heav'n on earth must be.
let my soul, where it is plant - ed, bring forth pre - cious sheaves a - lone, how - so - e'er temp - ta - tions thick - en, may thy word still o'er me shine may I un - dis - turbed draw near thee while thou dost thy peo - ple feed.

Oh, how bless-ed is this place, filled with so-lace, light, and grace!
To my heart, oh, en-ter thou, let it be thy tem-ple now!
so that all I hear may be fruit-ful un-to life in me.
as my guid-ing star through life, as my com-fort in all strife.
Here of life the foun-tain flows; here is balm for all our woes.

*The Apostolic Greeting

P The grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

C And also with you.

*Kyrie

For peace in the world, for the health of the church, for the unity of all;
For this holy house, for all who worship and praise,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (refrain)

That we may live out your impassioned response to the hungry and the poor;
That we may live out . . . truth and justice and grace.
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (refrain)

For peace in our hearts . . . For peace in our homes . . . For friends and family.
For life and for love . . . For our work and our play,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (refrain)

For your Spirit to guide, that you center our lives in the water and the word;
That you nourish our souls . . . With your body and blood,
Let us pray to the Lord, let us pray to the Lord. (refrain)

Prayer of the Day*

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray. O God, in the transfiguration of your Son you confirmed the mysteries of the faith by the witness of Moses and Elijah, and in the voice from the bright cloud declaring Jesus your beloved Son, you foreshadowed our adoption as your children. Make us heirs with Christ of your glory, and bring us to enjoy its fullness, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen

The First Reading

Exodus 24:12-18

At Mount Sinai, Moses experienced the presence of God for forty days and forty nights. The "glory of the Lord" settled on the mountain, and on the seventh day God called out to Moses. On the mountain God gave Moses the stone tablets inscribed with the ten commandments.

The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

A The Word of the Lord

C Thanks be to God.

Psalm 2

Why are the nations in an uproar? Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt, and the princes plot together, against the LORD and against the LORD's anointed?

"Let us break their yoke," they say; "let us cast off their bonds from us."

God whose throne is in heaven is laughing; the LORD holds them in derision.

Then in wrath God speaks to them, and in rage fills them with terror.

"As for me, I have anointed my king upon Zion, my holy mountain."

Let me announce the decree of the LORD, who said to me, "You are my son; this day have I begotten you.

Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession.

You shall crush them with an iron rod and shatter them like a piece of pottery."

And now, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Submit to the LORD with fear, and with trembling bow in worship;

lest the LORD be angry, and you perish in a sudden blaze of wrath. Happy are all who take refuge in God!

The Second Reading

2 Peter 1:16-21

.At the transfiguration, God's voice was heard, declaring Jesus to be the beloved Son. By the activity of the Holy Spirit, God's voice continues to be heard through the word of scripture.

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

A The Word of the Lord

C Thanks be to God.

*The Holy Gospel

Matthew 17:1-9

Shortly before he enters Jerusalem, where he will be crucified, Jesus is revealed to his disciples in a mountaintop experience of divine glory called the transfiguration.

P The Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew, the seventeenth chapter.

¹ Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ³ Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." ⁴ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" ⁵ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. ⁶ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." ⁷ And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

⁸ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

P The Gospel of the Lord.

The Apostles' Creed*

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

*The Prayers of the Church

P As God's beloved children, let us pray that the light of Christ shine on the nations, the church, and all those in need.

A Grant to those who worship on this holy day a glimpse of your glory, that we might see your presence in all the gifts of daily life. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

A Reveal yourself to us in the splendor of mountains and clouds, sunshine and rain, that our praise may lead us to care tenderly for your creation. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

A Give to the leaders of nations a vision of the world at peace, that they work together for the good of all the people of the earth. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

A Draw near to all those living with fear or anxiety, grief or illness, that your morning star may dawn in their hearts. Listen to the names we hold before you . . . Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

A Be with the guests of our Island. May their stays be restful and renewing, their travels safe, and their homecomings joyous. Lord, in your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Hear these prayers, O God, offered in the name of your Son, who has made your glory and graciousness known to us.

C Amen

The Holy Preparation and Contemplation*

P We are instructed by the Apostle Paul to examine our hearts before we receive God's Holy and gracious gift that we might not eat or drink in an unworthy manner and sin against the Body and Blood of Christ.

A moment of silence is offered so we may examine our hearts before the Lord.

P Holy God,

C We have examined our hearts and see that we are unworthy. Yet, because of Your command and great invitation, we come boldly before Your throne to receive Your grace in our time of need.

Words of Institution*

The Lord's Prayer*

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Come and taste the joy of God!

Distribution at the Altar

All are welcome to share in this meal with us. The wine will be distributed from a chalice with a pouring lip. After receiving the bread, the tray will be presented with empty glasses. Please pick up a glass and wait for the assistant to fill it with wine from the Common Cup. The center circle of cups is pre-filled with grape juice for those who would rather not receive wine.

Opportunities to Help Out!

Here at Lihue Lutheran we are committed to making God's Name known. We do that, first and foremost, by getting to know you. We believe in the power of fellowship and believe that God's Name is made known when we dwell together in unity. If you're looking for a place to find your place, make God's Name known, and be known, think about becoming more involved here at Lihue Lutheran in the following areas!

Join our Welcoming Team!

We are looking for warm and friendly people to stand outside and greet members, guests, and visitors! Help people become a part of our community!

Aloha Hour Team Lead

We need help hosting and cleaning up aloha hour after church. This is not just about coffee and pupus! We are purchasing lawn games and seek to curate opportunities for fellowship to happen. We will need help setting up and cleaning up the fellowship space that will include the kitchen and lawn area, re-organizing and putting away lawn games. Reach out to Noreen Javinar (our office manager) or Jason Pittman, our Aloha Hour Executive Team Lead.

Donate a Lawn Game and Get Games Going After Church

We are seeking to grow our Aloha (fellowship) Hour by adding fun and exciting lawn games. To do this, we are looking to add Portuguese Horseshoes, Cornhole, or other games to encourage people to play together and connect in the bond of fellowship after church! Our vision is that we would be(come) more than just a place a worship and grow into a place of fellowship and belonging as a part of a New Community! Your job is to set up/take down games after service to get people playing!

Sponsor a Youth or College Young Adult Dinner

Just because you're not a part of the youth or college young adult group doesn't mean you can't partner with us in the great ministry and outreach God is doing among us. 1 Peter 4:10 calls us to faithfully use the gifts God has given us, sharing God's grace in its various forms. One area you can partner with us is in the provision of food, which is a center-piece of our gathers! If you cook for the Ghetto Sweet Tarts, you will be invited to fellowship with us as on honorary "Sweet-Tart-For-The-Night", Monday's 5:30-8:30pm. Please reach out to Pastor JP if you would like to prepare a meal and bless our fellowship!
